

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church
PROPER 27 - CREATION CARE SEASON

Saint Stephen's welcomes everyone who wishes to follow Christ, worship together, grow in faith and share God's love through service to others.

Saturday - 5 November, 5pm & Sunday - 6 November, 11am, 2022

The Psalmist declares, "The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims God's handiwork. Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge their voice is not heard; yet their voice goes out through all the Earth, and their words to the end of the world." (19:1-4).

Creation never ceases to proclaim, but do we hear? We commit to "Listen to the Voice of Creation." By listening to the voice of all creation, humans from all cultures and sectors of life can be joined in our call to care for Earth, our common home.

The burning bush is the symbol for this Season of Creation. Today, Creation cries out as forests crackle in flames, animals flee, and people are forced to migrate due to the fires of unheeded climate changes.

In contrast, the fire that called to Moses as he tended the flock on Mt. Horeb did not consume or destroy the bush. This flame of the Spirit revealed God's presence. This holy fire affirmed that God heard the cries of all who suffered, and promised to be with us as we followed in faith to our deliverance from injustice.

First Lesson: A reading from the book of Genesis 1:26—2:3

Then God said, ‘Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.’

So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, and God said to them, ‘Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.’ God said, ‘See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.’ And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

The Psalm:

Psalm 8

- 1 O Lord, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.
- 2 Out of the mouths of babes and infants
you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;
4 what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mortals that you care for them?
Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honour.
6 You have given them dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under their feet, 7 all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,
8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.
9 O Lord, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Second Lesson: A reading from the book Wisdom 6:1-11

Listen therefore, O kings, and understand;
learn, O judges of the ends of the earth.
Give ear, you that rule over multitudes,
and boast of many nations.
For your dominion was given you from the Lord,
and your sovereignty from the Most High;
he will search out your works and inquire into your plans.
Because as servants of his kingdom you did not rule rightly,
or keep the law,
or walk according to the purpose of God,
he will come upon you terribly and swiftly,
because severe judgement falls on those in high places.
For the lowliest may be pardoned in mercy,
but the mighty will be mightily tested.
For the Lord of all will not stand in awe of anyone,
or show deference to greatness;
because he himself made both small and great,
and he takes thought for all alike.
But a strict inquiry is in store for the mighty.
To you then, O monarchs, my words are directed,
so that you may learn wisdom and not transgress.

For they will be made holy who observe holy things in holiness, and those who have been taught them will find a defence.
Therefore set your desire on my words;
long for them, and you will be instructed.

Gospel Lesson:

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 1:6-18

People: Glory to you Lord Christ.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. (John testified to him and cried out, 'This was he of whom I said, "He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me."') From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you Lord Christ.

SERMON

Nicene Creed (Traditional)

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People:

The Leader and People pray responsively

Leader: Lord, there is no pain in our hearts or in our planet that you do not know, for you have touched the lowest places on earth.

People: Teach us to grieve with you, O Christ, the loss of all the beauty that is passing away.

Leader: There is no place in the heavens that cannot be touched by your resurrection presence, for you fill all things.

People: Give us strength in your victory over death to grow into your way of love, which does not despair but keeps sowing seeds of hope and making signs of wholeness.

Leader: In you, Lord Christ, all the parts of the body fit together joined and knitted together by every ligament with which it is provided. Each part working together, promotes the body's growth, building itself up in love.

People: Teach us to recognize our interconnectedness with all things. Teach us to grow with each other and all living creatures through love.

Leader: Let us be at peace within ourselves.

People: Let us accept that we are profoundly loved and need never be afraid.

Leader: Let us be aware of the source of being that is common to us all and to all living creatures.

People: Let us be filled with the presence of the great compassion towards ourselves and towards all living beings.

Leader: Realizing that we are all nourished from the same source of life, may we so live that others are not deprived of air, food, water, shelter, or the chance to live.

People: Let us pray that we ourselves cease to be a cause of suffering to one another.

Leader: With humility let us pray for the establishment of peace in our hearts and on earth.

People: May God kindle in us the fire of love to awaken us and give back humbly and generously to the world. Amen.

The Confession

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God, our neighbors, and all Creation.

(Short Silence may be kept.)

Deacon: We have forgotten who we are.

People: We have alienated ourselves from the unfolding of the Cosmos. We have become estranged from the movements of the earth. We have turned our backs on the cycles of life.

Deacon: We have forgotten who we are.

People: We have sought only our own security. We have exploited for our own ends. We have distorted our knowledge. We have abused our power.

Deacon: We have forgotten who we are.

People: Now the land is becoming barren. And the waters are often poisoned. And the air is heavily polluted.

Deacon: We have forgotten who we are.

People: Now the forests are burning and dying. And the creatures are disappearing. And humans are despairing.

Deacon: We have forgotten who we are.

People: We ask forgiveness. We ask for the gift of remembering. We ask for the strength to change. Help us to remember who we are. Amen.

Presider: Almighty God have mercy on us forgive us all our sins through our Lord, Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Presider

Blessed are you, Lord God, our light and our salvation; to you be glory and praise for ever.

From the beginning you created all things and all your works echo with music of your praise. All things are of your making, all times and seasons obey your laws. You made us in your image. You give us breath and speech, so that now we give you thanks for setting us as stewards over the whole world in all its wonder.

Therefore we praise you day by day for the marvels of your power, creativity, and natural beauty: along with all the earth — united with heaven to sing a new song of creation:

Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might (x2) heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest (x2)

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest (x2)

The Presider continues

Glory and thanksgiving be to you, God our creator, for the gift of your Son born in human flesh. Christ is your holy Wisdom, existing beyond time, present at the creation.

Through Christ you revealed yourself in the world, and bring your saving work to its completion. Obedient to your will, he died upon the Cross. By your power you raised him from the dead. He broke the bonds of evil and set your people free to be his Body in the world.

On the night when he was given up to death, knowing that his hour had come, having loved his own, he loved them to the end.

At supper with his disciples he took bread and offered you thanks. He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying: "Take, eat. This is my Body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup, he offered you thanks, and gave it to them saying: "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant; poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Do this for the remembrance of me."

We now recall his blessed passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension; and we look for the coming of his Kingdom.

Made one with him, we offer you these gifts and with them ourselves, a single, holy, living sacrifice.

Hear us, most merciful Father, and send your Holy Spirit upon us (+) and upon this bread and this wine (+), that, overshadowed by the Spirit's life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

Help us to live and work to your praise and glory; may we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage in the company of the Virgin Mary, the apostles and prophets, and of all our brothers and sisters living and departed.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be to you, Lord of all ages, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Lord's Prayer: (Traditional)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Fraction Anthem

The goodness of the Lord
O Taste and See, taste and see
The goodness of the Lord, of the Lord.
